

Fort Vancouver Chapter Oregon Dressage Society Adult Amateur Camp

When: August 12 - 14, 2022

Where: Summerfield Farm 1814 NE 259th St, Ridgefield, WA 98642

Instructors: Tedi Paasch and Megan Pugh

Cost: $500 - all inclusive including stabling fee. Campers bring their own horse feed. Stabling is temporary pipe corrals under a big tent on grass.

Camp participants will enjoy 2 private lessons on Saturday and 2 private lessons on Sunday. Several lectures and demonstrations, all meals provided from Friday evening to end of day on Sunday. Friday late afternoon is for arriving and settling horses, then a wine and cheese meet and greet, dinner, and a demonstration by Megan Pugh titled "Exercises on the way to FEI". Saturday evening demonstration is by Tedi Pasch "Proper Neck Development of the Dressage Horse, and Proper Lunging Techniques" Lecture from veterinarian "How to Keep Your Dressage Horse Sound, -Wraps, Boots or not?" Campers will also experience a head and neck massage, fun, good food, and new friends!

Name _____

Horse's name _____

Address _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Do you require stabling? _____ (some campers are trailering in each day)

Are you bringing an RV or RV/horse trailer combo? _____

(Dry camping is available on site, but no hookups)

Any special needs for you or your horse? _____

Emergency Contact name & number _____

Send this form and check by the July 12, 2022 closing date to: Sarah Crampton, 6501 144th St, Vancouver WA 98686 Questions? 360-521-0871. No refunds after the closing date, unless a replacement can fill and pay for the entry.

